HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 20.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

Mediation of the Great Powers Unsuccessful.

SKETCH OF THE FRENCH CAMPAIGN.

Prussia's Ultimatum, Dethronement of the Bonapartes.

SUICIDE OF THE FRENCH MINISTER AT WASHINGTON.

General Details of News.

Suicide of the French Minister at Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Prevost Paradol, the new French Minister, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself with a pistol; he left the following note: "I will kill myself. M. Berthemy come back and stay."

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The inquest on the body of French Minister Paradol, returned a verdict that he died by his own hand under mental aberration. M. Berthemy has returned from New York and fills the position until further instructions from Paris.

The Richmond Officials.

RICHMOND, July 20.—The case of the municipal officers of this city was decided against the present conservative holders of this city. A new election must be held.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The total number of deaths by sunstroke yesterday was 35; 30 cases were reported as not fatal.

Our Foreign Relations.

CHICAGO, July 20.—A Washington special says our new minister to England, ex-Senator Frelinghuysen, was yesterday officially notified of his appointment, which he accepts. His instructions, which so far as the Alabama claims are concerned, will be a duplication of those which Motley failed to carry out. Frelinghuysen will not leave for London for some weeks.

Our officials are rather reticent, but it is believed some of the European Powers are making arrangements to purchase war material in this country. A cable telegram to-day from a financial house in London says business is at a stand still, and business men are divided in their opinions as to whether there will be war or not. A good many persons point to the fact that neither the French Minister at Berlin nor Prussian Minister at Paris has received his passports, and agree that as both have withdrawn on leave, it is not yet certain but the trouble may blow over. Our Government has not yet received any official notification of the existence of war, but the President has had under consideration the question of issuing a neutrality proclamation, and will probably put it in shape before leaving the city, so that it can be issued if occasion arises. He has already sent neutrality instructions to some of our agents abroad.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The currency balance in the Treasury, $31,000,000; coin balance, $114,000,000. Government has nothing relative to European affairs.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the release of the remaining 1,400 barrels of whisky seized in California.

Secretary Fish telegraphed Minister Washburn to-day to request the North German Government to ask France to permit the American Legation to extend to German subjects the same personal protection extended to French subjects in Mexico by the American Legation.

It is said in case Gen. Schenck does not get the nomination for Congress the President will appoint him Minister to Prussia in place of Bancroft to be relieved.

It is again confidently asserted that that Hardenberg will be appointed Surveyor General of California.

McGarrahan remains here to resume the contest for Panoche Grande.

The Pacific coast States and Territories will doubtless get their full share of the $600,000 Indian appropriation bill.

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Activity in the grain market continues. Prices Lower. Wheat closed at $1 38.

Prussia Offers to Buy the Stevens Battery.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Prussian Government has made proposals to buy the Stevens Battery.

The steamer Silesia, with the mails, sailed to-day with the Prussian flag flying.

Georgia Legislature.

ATLANTA, July 20.—In the House, a resolution was offered which had been reported and agreed upon in Republican caucus, that no election will be held in the State until the admission of its representatives to Congress, and that all election laws not suitable for the present condition of the State be repealed.

Meeting of Germans in New York.

NEW YORK, July 20.—A mass meeting of Germans was held to night. Addresses were delivered by Carl Schurz and others. Resolutions were adopted in condemnation of France and support of Prussia.

NEW YORK, July 19.—A special to the New York Times says it is positively asserted in London on what is regarded as the highest authority, that Austria joins France against Prussia.

Weather cooler to-day. There have been but 16 fatal cases of sunstroke.

BY THE CABLES.

VIENNA, July 20.—Turkey has called out reserves and stopped telegraphs in all directions.

BERLIN, July 20.—The Riechstadt, or North German Parliament, met yesterday afternoon. Vehement cheering followed Bismarck's announcement of war by France.

PARIS, July 20.—It is rumored that Prince Napoleon will go to the Baltic with his land force, and co-operate with the fleet of the Vice Admiral in occupying the Territory of Hanover. A number of spies have been captured on both sides near the Rhine.

The Bank of France has announced an advance in its rate of interest to 3½ per cent.

DUBLIN, July 20.—A great popular demonstration in favor of France was made in this city last evening. More than 100,000 people, with twenty bands of music paraded the streets. French and Irish flags were carried entwined. The police charged into the procession and captured these flags, but the mob rallied and retook them. Intense excitement prevailed.

COLOGNE, July 20.—French troops passed the frontier near Saar Brucken last evening and seized the custom house.

BERLIN, July 20.—There is perfect harmony in the councils of all the North German States on the war question. In the Saxon Chambers the Ministers of Finance told the deputies that France was anxious for war and should have it as sharply and severely as possible. These remarks were enthusiastically received. The North German Parliament voted 120,000,000 thalers for war expenses.

PARIS, July 20.—The Journal Officiel contains a decree nominating General Le Boeuf as Major General, and Viscount de Jean as Minister of War ad interim.

It is understood that all the French Consuls in the German confederation have received their passports.

No newspaper correspondents, French or foreign, will be allowed to accompany the French army.

LONDON, July 20.—Germany makes the dethronement of the Bonapartes its ultimatum.

LIVERPOOL, July 20.—The markets were utterly prostrate yesterday, and the commercial depression was never equalled. Many men worth £100,000 sterling a few days ago, are now bankrupt. Business in manufactured goods at Manchester is equally prostrate.

PARIS, July 19.—La Liberte states that Changarnier will probably be Minister of War, vice Le Boeuf, who takes the field.

A large number of the constituents of M. Thiers demand his retirement from the Corps Legislatif on the ground that he outraged the patriotic sentiment of the county by his recent speech against the war.

There are rumors of Denmark giving way to the influence of England and Russia but she has so far shown no signs of swerving from neutrality.

It is reported that the Ambassadors of Baden, Saxony, Hesse, Bavaria and Wurtemberg are ordered to quit Paris.

The Corps Legislatif yesterday adopted bills submitted and credits asked for by the Government.

Earl Granville has not been in the city.

Official notice of the declaration of war was yesterday submitted to the European powers.

France has notified Prussia that they will not use explosive bullets if Prussia will not.

After the first battle is fought all the powers of Europe will make an effort to stop the conflict.

The French journals have received orders to publish no information concerning military movements.

The Catholics of South Germany are reported opposed to Prussia.

BERLIN, July 19.—The King made a speech to the people last evening, saying he was not responsible for the war.

BRUSSELS, July 19.—France has notified the great powers that she has entered into reciprocal engagements with Belgium and Holland, ensuring their neutrality. France is also negotiating with the same view with Russia.

FLORENCE, July 19.—The Italian Government has called out two classes of militia reserves as a precautionary measure.

LONDON, July 20—Noon.—No news of any engagement by land or sea has been received here. Rumors of alliances are still rumors only. No authentic information of any powers having taken sides with either combatants is made public.

BERLIN, July 20.—Upon the opening of the Reichstadt yesterday, the King said Prussia had no interest in the selection of Prince Hohenzollern for the Spanish throne, except that it might bring peace to a friendly people. It had nevertheless furnished the Emperor of the French with a pretext for a war unknown to diplomacy. He had indulged in language to Germany which could only have been prompted by a miscalculation of her strength. Germany was powerful enough to repel such insults.

PARIS, July 20.—In the Corps Legislatif to-day, Duke De Grammont announced that war had been declared with Prussia and her allies.

A meeting of citizens of the United States was held last night to take measures for the organization of a Sanitary Commission, which it is proposed shall co-operate with the International and French society in aid of the wounded.

Washburne, American Minister, was in Bohemia when he heard the news of the breaking out of the war. He immediately returned to Paris, and yesterday was in consultation with several of his diplomatic colleagues.

La Liberte asserts that M. Virigate has gone to Florence with a treaty of alliance between France and Italy. The same paper says Denmark joins France in the war. The Prince of Orleans will serve in the Danish army.

BAZILE, Switzerland, July 20.—An agent of the Swiss army, and several other officers high in rank, have arrived in Germany. It is believed that Prussia purposely retards the answer to Switzerland's declaration of neutrality.

LONDON, July 19.—The surveillance in Paris over the telegraph prevents the forwarding of any news unfavorable to the Government.

LONDON, July 20.—The Standard, this morning, says that the recent trouble in stocks is altogether due to croakers. The money markets remain easier and money is freely offered at 2 and 2½ per cent.

PARIS, July 20, 3 P. M.—The Bourse is weak. Rentes continue to decline—now quoted at 65. There has been no fighting on sea or land reported up to 3 30 this evening. A few slight skirmishes have taken place between Cuban officers and patrols, but no blood shed. Prussians on the border say Bismarck is much troubled at the slowness of the landwehr in coming forward. Spanish papers unanimously condemn Napoleon for declaring war.

LONDON, July 20, 3:30 P. M.—It is reported that a collision occurred this morning near Forbach, between French and Prussian advance guards. Nothing further known. There are some doubts about the report, as Paris advices say there has been no fighting reported. France denies that the stipulations of the Paris Convention apply to the present war. Earl Granville reports that the determined and absolute refusal of the Emperor Napoleon to entertain negotiations, renders it improbable that any attempt will be made to renew them, as it will be useless until a great battle has been fought.

LIVERPOOL, July 20.—The markets have recovered from the panic.

HOW TO STAND THE HOT WEATHER.—From the New York Evening Mail June 29, we take the following:

There are a great many ways of enduring the hot weather. The most helpless victims of the dog-days are your gentlemen of leisure, who have nothing under the burning heavens to do save to watch the thermometer, seek cool places, and dwell, mentally or orally, on the tribulations of "the heated term." These are the most pitiable of the sufferers, outside of the reeking tenement-house quarters, that we know anything about.

Men who have much to do manage in some way to get through the day without lapsing into the utter and vacant despondency which settles over the unemployed and makes the day seem a week in its tedious duration. If a man's heart is really in his work—no matter what it may be—he will become at least partially forgetful of the intense bodily discomforts of hot weather. And, besides, he will not really suffer as much as the idlers, for the perspiration that comes from healthy toil is the indication of a natural reaction against the effect of heat and of a vigorous throwing off of everything that impedes the free circulation through the skin.

We know a couple of gentlemen who get themselves into the best possible condition by playing a few games of ten-pins after their 6 o'clock dinner has had time to adjust itself. They get into lively perspiration and into a condition of bodily vigor, and when a bountiful supply of cool water has cleansed the surface of their skins, and when they have enjoyed in quiet the refreshment of their cigars they endure the warmth of the rest of the evening with a composure, good nature and philosophy, which are the envy of their less larone companions.

The Louisville Commercial gives an account of a singular accident which recently occurred near Tell City, Indiana. A family in the neighborhood having lost a valuable cow, went out to search for her. The party to the search consisted of two men, a woman and a boy. They found the cow, which had evidently been shot, with slugs, as they supposed, on Monday last. They proceeded at once to take off the hide, with which they returned home. A short time afterward the whole party were attacked with symptoms of poison, being affected with a disease like that sometimes arising to physicians in the dissecting room. Both of the men are dead, and the woman and boy are not expected to recover.

A lady advertises that she will open a school to teach "darning" at Montgomery, Alabama, and the local paper calls her "our gifted townwoman," whereupon there is a general snicker among the papers elsewhere. Really now this is no laughing matter. "We believe in the "gifted townwoman," she goes in for the elevation of her sex, and she is shrewd enough to see that the sex cannot be elevated with any propriety with holes in their stocking heels.

A Southern judge refused to accept the plea of a newly-appointed juror that he was not a freeholder, on the ground that he had kept bachelor's hall six months, and "no man could keep bachelor's hall that length of time who had not dirt enough in his room to make him a freeholder."

Subscriptions to the extent of $1,000 per month during the war were received and arrangements made for a thorough canvass of the city. They expect to raise $20,000 within a week. A dispatch was read from Meibus Sebeller in Marysville, tendering services to be given in aid of Germany's great cause.

A reply from King William returning his thanks to the citizens of Chicago for their cordial action, and one from the mass meeting in Sacramento, stating that they would unite with our citizens in raising funds were read. The meeting adjourned by the band playing "Yankee Doodle," after which rousing cheers were given for King William, Bismarck, the Union, and President Grant.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Major-General Winn has issued his proclamation to the heathen, intimating very plainly to them that if they continue coming here the power of the United States will not be sufficient to protect them from the valiant army under his command. He says when legal means were too slow the people would not wait, and have often visited justice upon wrong doers. They have taken life without law, and often inflict punishment before Government can prevent it. He counsels moderation, but our voice for peace will scarcely be heard in the shouts of an excited population. The Chinese have not yet commenced leaving.

The Verdict of the People

It is [illegible] of the partisan [illegible] to shut [illegible] from their [illegible] the [illegible] declaring that the people of the United States are totally opposed to allowing the colored man to vote, and that the fifteenth amendment has been carried by fraud. A few days ago the Herald had an article in which this was affirmed. Said that paper: "It appears that very few of the States voted in favor of the amendment ever had the question before them in a general election. [illegible] It requires, therefore, a considerable degree of hardihood to say that the so-called adoption of the fifteenth amendment is the verdict of the people of the United States on the question." Let us look at the facts.

In the year 1868 a large majority of the States voted for General Grant for President. To the Legislatures chosen in that election the fifteenth amendment was referred. Inasmuch as the amendment was not proposed to the States by Congress till after that election, it was claimed by the Democrats that the will of the people on the question would not be indicated by the action of the then existing Legislatures upon it. Therefore they looked to the elections of 1869 for a signal rebuke of the amendment. But every State which had voted for Gen. Grant and which held a general election the following year, save Tennessee, whose Constitution was trampled on by the Governor and the State thus thrown into Democratic hands, gave a Republican majority and thus affirmed the fifteenth amendment. The Republicans have not lost a State on that amendment. On the contrary, on a direct contest on the amendment in Ohio they carried the Legislature which was before Democratic, defeated the great Democratic champion, Pendleton, and secured the ratification of the amendment by that State. The amendment, then, was not "forced" on the Northern States. They adopted it of their own free will by large majorities. But it will be said that it was "forced on the South." It was not forced on that section any more than the abolition of slavery was. National authority was embodied in the people of those States which had remained true to the Constitution, and from the outbreak of the rebellion till the close of reconstruction the national authority as thus embodied was to be obeyed.

The people of the United States have pronounced their verdict on this question. The subject is fully settled. No one whose judgment is worth consulting seriously believes that three-fourths of the States could be carried on a proposition to strike out of the Constitution an amendment which so many of the States have voted directly to put in.

Illinois and her New Constitution

It is a very noteworthy fact that in many of our States there is a rapidly growing sentiment in opposition to the policy of pledging State, county or municipal aid to private corporations, even for the most useful purposes of internal improvement. In Iowa the people have had enough of the policy, and if we may judge from the opposition they have recently manifested to it, they will as speedily as possible take measures to provide against its continuance. In Michigan the same sentiment prevails. Both of these States have recently been much agitated upon the subject. But in Illinois opposition to the policy has just been expressed in a manner the most emphatic. A prime object of the new Constitution of that State is to cure evils that have grown out of the old system of running up debts against State, counties and towns to aid railway and other corporations. This new Constitution has been adopted by an immense majority. It is guarded at all points very like the Constitution of Oregon, so that it is impossible to perpetrate any great jobs under it. The wisdom of those who framed the Constitution of our State is thus vindicated by the experience of the great State of Illinois, which, after having tried the opposite system, now turns to this policy as absolutely essential to the public welfare.

The Legislature of Illinois, under the new Constitution, cannot increase the State debt beyond a quarter of a million dollars, except for war purposes. It cannot loan the credit of the State to pay the debts of, or in any other way assist any corporation or individual. It can make no irrevocable grant of special privileges. County authorities cannot levy a tax of more than seventy-five cents on the one hundred dollars of valuation without a direct vote of the people, and no county is allowed to incur or have a debt amounting to more than five per cent. of the valuation of its property. Counties and municipalities are also prohibited from giving money to corporations or individuals, from subscribing to stock, and from lending their credit. No donations can be made by State, counties or towns to any church or for any sectarian purpose, and no tax can be levied for such objects. The regulations for checking grants or donations of whatever description are as stringent as the framers of the Constitution could make them, and the adoption of the instrument by an overwhelming vote of the people marks a new era in State economy in that section of the Union.

The tendency of public sentiment in all parts of the country is decidedly in this direction. The Constitution of Oregon is right in this particular, and we are favored by being several years ahead of some of the other States in the adoption of the policy.

Worthy of Imitation

The Minneapolis (Minnesota) Tribune has the following complimentary notice of the enterprise of St. Paul:

> There is one meed of praise which must be extended to the business men of St. Paul as well by enemies as friends—and that is, when anything is to be done for St. Paul, they go manfully and unitedly to the work and accomplish it if practicable. There is no hesitancy—no calculation of whether it is to cost one dollar or ten—as to what Mrs. Grundy will say—or whether a vote is to be lost or won. They go in man fashion—and the result is, that every opportunity is bravely improved—the city grows and thrives and its citizens with it, of course. Its business men have, most of them, been born and educated since Noah's time—very few of them were in the ark with him and those who were, voted it "slow" and left it on the first ebb tide on Ararat. The best of it is, for St. Paul, that it is all done so quietly that its example has not yet roused up a sufficient spirit of competition to be troublesome.

All this is in striking contrast with the lethargy of the capitalists [illegible] of this city, who have made themselves almost as noted throughout Oregon for their lack of pluck and enterprise and power of combination, as the business men of St. Paul have become throughout Minnesota for the possession of those qualities. Need the history of the west side railroad be cited to make the contrast more apparent? One has only to read the above paragraph from the Minnesota paper in order to bring fully and clearly to his mind what has been lacking here.

Lands and Immigration

The [illegible] of this city [illegible] the [illegible] mentioned by the San Francisco [illegible] published in the [illegible], that [illegible] land and immigration [illegible] originated entirely with Mr. B. H. [illegible], and that it includes only the lands of the Oregon and California Railroad Company. This State will therefore receive the sole benefit of this most important project. The lands will be mapped and described and sold to actual settlers who will be brought here in the most easy and favorable terms. [illegible]

This magnificent scheme, fraught with so much of grand importance to our State, pregnant with such splendid future benefits and advantages to her highest destiny, and to prove ultimately successful beyond the hazard of a doubt, we are glad to know is backed and will be prosecuted by men of energy, immense wealth and boundless resources both in our own country and in England, in Holland and in Germany, and it will not fail of consummation. They will in short time more particularly arrange their plans of action. The principal office of the company will be either in this city or in San Francisco—it is not yet determined in which. And in a little while we shall again and more fully give other information in regard to the project and its aims.

Jones of Kentucky, in a recent speech in Congress, felt called on to rebuke certain of the New York Democratic members for their departure from the bed rock doctrine of repudiation. He affirmed that these members did not truly represent their constituents when they supported the funding bill, inasmuch as that bill contemplates the full and complete payment of the debt. Jones declared that he would rather see his party beaten in 1872 than that it should endorse the hated Republican idea of paying the debt in good money. If Jones goes to the next Congress he will have one supporter and backer, viz: Slater of Oregon. The pair of them will be devoted supporters of the genuine Democratic doctrine.

It is painful to ruin a good thing, but according to a St. Paul paper the truth of history compels the announcement that the line of the Northern Pacific road has been changed since last winter, and the first ground penetrated by the first pick, and the first shovel full of earth lifted by the first shovel and placed in the first wheelbarrow which first wheeled it away, was an operation or ceremony which took place upon soil where the track of the Northern Pacific road will never be. The pick, shovel and wheelbarrow, which were forwarded to Jay Cooke at great expense have been in turn presented by him to a Philadelphia museum. This sad change makes them a "flaunting lie."

The New York Times makes the relations of Canada and Great Britain the subject of a long article and concludes that the tendency of British statesmanship, so far as Canada is concerned, is to recognize in that colonial dependency a perpetual source of weakness to the British Empire. Certain it is that the leading British journals have indicated again and again the desire of the nation to get rid of the burden.

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA

The olive crop of Southern California this year will be the best ever known.

Oregon wool sells in San Francisco for 25@26 cents per pound, for shipment East.

The population of Marysville is ascertained to be as follows: Whites, 3,677, negroes, 224, Chinese, 1,049.

The Commercial Herald says the amount of money in San Francisco, seeking investment, is very large at present, so large that considerable quantities are being sent East for investment in Government bonds. This is the logical result of the high prices heretofore demanded for its use.

An intimation, recently, that the rates for carrying the treasure East by railroad would be increased after a certain date, resulted in the shipment within the specified time, in a single day, of over $220,000, being the largest amount sent forward since the 23d of last September, when upwards of $300,000 was remitted.

On the 14th inst., Charles Grats and Joseph Bos were arrested at Elko on a telegram from San Francisco. The men were found on board the east bound train. The charge against them was for grand larceny—stealing $1,000 in greenbacks at San Francisco. Upon being searched the money was found in their possession.

The San Francisco Call of the 13th inst., says: A magnificent palace car is being built for the Central Pacific Railroad Company at the Kimball car and carriage manufactory, in this city. Some pains will be taken to have it constructed as nearly as possible of California and Oregon woods. Samples of all the choicest woods, for interior finish, and over thirty varieties, consisting of laurel, manzanita, madrona, black oak, white oak, buckeye, etc., have been collected by Ogden and Kimball, the manufacturers.

On the night of July the 7th a barbarous murder was committed in the Pacheco mountains, east of Gilroy, Cal., by one Arcia, the victim being William Guy, who owned a sheep ranch in the mountains. It seems Guy left Gilroy for his ranch, having in his possession four or five hundred dollars, and was followed by Arcia, who was pasturing some sheep on Guy's ranch. On the night of July 7th, while Guy was sleeping in his camp on the ranch, Arcia presented a rifle within three feet of his breast and shot him through the heart, and then beat and cut his head horribly. The murderer took possession of Guy's watch, money, horse, saddle and bridle, and departed for parts unknown. The villain failed, however, to find about $400 which was rolled up in an old blanket. Officers are in pursuit of Arcia.

Singular Accident

The Jacksonville Sentinel of Saturday last gives the following account of an accident which was mentioned recently in the telegraphic dispatches:

On the evening of July 9th the wife of Abraham Miller, Jr., formerly of Linn county, Oregon, while engaged in preparing supper at camp, at the Big Spring, in Langel's valley, on the head of Lost River, was seriously, and it is feared mortally wounded by the explosion of a cookingstove, under the following circumstances: One of the wagons having fallen over a grade in the mountains, while traveling up the Middle Fork of the Willamette river, and the stove was set out, together with other heavy articles, to be brought in the next day. A can of powder was left upon the stove. Jas. C. Twombly, a step son of Mr. Miller, who was in charge of the team, saw a stranger passing back and requested him to hide the powder in the stove so that it might be safe till he went back himself. When he went back he was unable to find the powder and supposed it had been carried off by some one; thus the matter was overlooked, until the time of the accident, when the stove was blown into atoms. The fire had been in the stove an hour or more before it exploded. The other members of the family had a narrow escape, they had just left the stove when the explosion occurred, and were trying to catch some young wild ducks in a spring branch but a few rods distant. The party had left their old residence expressly to benefit the health of Mrs. Miller. She was improving rapidly and in the best of spirits. No surgeon could be obtained and she is under the tender care of Mrs. Vincent, a lady of much experience in such cases and is doing better than could have been expected under the circumstances. There is a severe fracture of the skull, commencing above the right eyebrow and running up the forehead. It does not seem to have injured the brain, as she retains her full mental faculties. Her arms are both wounded, also two of the fingers of the right hand.

There was an amusing episode in the recent meeting of the American Institute of Science. On the last day but one, Prof. Pierce of Harvard was called on for a paper. He arose with perfect gravity and informed the learned assembly that he had a mathematical essay in his pocket, but as there was only three members of the institute who could understand it, and neither of them was in the hall, he must beg to be excused from reading it. The President, Dr. Henry, wittily congratulated the body on its escape.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 21.

BY THE CABLES.

LONDON, July 21.—It is believed here that the Prussians are short of ammunition. The French are aware of it, hence the great activity of their movements. The ditches around Mayence have been filled with water. The works at and that place are considered impregnable. It is said the British Government is considering the question of [illegible] troops to preserve the neutrality of Belgium. The [illegible], a semi-official Austrian journal denies that the sympathy of Austria is with Germany. According to accounts from Rome the people openly favor Prussia.

LONDON, July 21.—Wurtemberg joins Prussia. Hesse Darmstadt voted a large war loan.

BERLIN, July 21.—A correspondent says Prussia will in a few hours equal France at all points. The national exultation is unbounded. Students are thronging to the recruiting offices and the scenes of 1813 are repeated. The same is true of South Germany. A French fleet has entered the Baltic.

PARIS, July 20, midnight.—The representatives of the foreign Powers made a united effort to-day to prevent war but were unsuccessful.

LONDON, July 21.—The following sketch of the French campaign has been received from reliable sources: The French army is concentrating within quadrilateral of Theonville, Strasburg and Mayence. Another corps will be in reserve at Chalons. The entire army will be composed of eight corps, each of three or four divisions of infantry and six or eight regiments of cavalry. Each division will have three batteries of artillery, one company of engineers, and will comprise from 10,000 to 12,000 men. David Newsom states that during a nineteen years residence in Marion county, he has never seen such abundant crops and so prolific a yield of both fields and gardens as is the case the present season. The quantity and quality of hay is unprecedented, and is being saved in the best possible condition. Fall wheat, and that sown in February, is now ripe and being harvested. He believes the fall and spring wheat will average near thirty bushels to the acre. So says the Statesman.

WILSON THE ROBBER

Prisoner waives Examination and is committed—Further Particulars of the Robbery and the Arrest—Shultz, his Accomplice.

Yesterday [illegible] Wilson was brought [illegible] by Sheriff [illegible] before Justice [illegible] on a warrant charging the [illegible] with having committed an assault with a deadly weapon upon [illegible]. To the charge Wilson pleaded not guilty, and waived examination. The Justice committed him to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

At the jail Wilson [illegible] his subsequent [illegible] in regard to the chase and the arrest [illegible] movements [illegible] except the name of his confederate. He says that his accomplice [illegible] Shultz, was in the city with him at the time of the arrest and that he was one of the parties who fired pistols in the street and [illegible]. He admits that the object of Wilson [illegible] was to draw the crowd away [illegible] and thus give him a chance to escape.

He says that at [illegible] time while the Sheriff's parties were hunting him in the woods one of the [illegible] passed within fifteen feet of where he and his accomplice lay concealed [illegible] that Shultz [illegible] the accomplice [illegible] cocked his shot gun and bringing it to [illegible] covered Johnson [illegible] that he (Wilson) seized the gun and prevented Shultz from shooting, saying that it would be sure death to both, if a gun were fired while the woods were full of men.

In regard to the apparent desperate foolhardiness of coming into town, he says that he did not suspect that so many were after him. He thought he might have to dodge or fight two or three policemen but had no idea that he was to be chased by the whole city. Though he entered the plea of not guilty, he does not pretend to deny the robbery. He says [illegible] was the other man who [illegible] He, Wilson, was the man who covered the party in the buggy with a double barreled shot gun. He was in the city the day before the arrest and bought some supplies of eatables.

In regard to the arrest and who accomplished it, it seems now well settled that Jo. Taylor, the Johnson boys and Billy Marshal were the men who discovered him in the city Wednesday evening and hunted him finally to the capture. They saw him enter a house of ill fame on Second street, though at this time they were not altogether positive as to his identity. When he came out of the house they followed him through several streets till finally after visiting the cellar he came to the corner of First and Morrison. At that point, they were satisfied he was the man and they went for him as heretofore related. Taylor fired [illegible] and one of the Johnson boys fired five. Wilson turned when he fired his first shot and then as he ran, he fired two or three more over his shoulder. Marshal was the first man to discover him in the tree and to sing out to him to surrender. Then simultaneously and almost at the same instant he was seen by a dozen or more others who covered him with pistols or shot guns. When he alighted from the tree upon the ground he was seized almost at the same instant by a dozen men and disarmed in a twinkling.

Of the later movements of Shultz, it is reported that he was in the city till near morning, and that he went to Marshal's house and attempted to shoot Mrs. Marshal in revenge for the part her husband had taken in the arrest of Wilson.

Yesterday the men who had hunted Wilson down, went out to the mountains in search of the camp occupied by Wilson and Shultz. They found it without difficulty, and brought in a coat and some other articles of clothing, some ammunition, tobacco, crackers, etc. They found no evidences that Shultz had been there since the day before. It is believed that Shultz is yet in the city.

SCOTLAND COMING TO OREGON.—Last Saturday Mr. Stitzel, of the firm of Stitzel & Upton, started up the valley accompanied by Mr. Wm. Chalmers and one or two other gentlemen who were desirous of seeing the country, having it in view to buy farms for future settlement. They went up on the east side as far as Albany, then crossed over into Benton and came down through Polk, Yamhill and Washington. Wednesday they went out to see Ben Cornelius' farm, a few miles northwest of Hillsboro, and the result of the visit was that Mr. Chalmers purchased the farm—nearly 1,000 acres—paying for it $14,268. Mr. Chalmers was delighted with all the country and upon his return to Scotland will be disposed to give of it a most favorable account. He will leave his son to take charge of the farm on the 1st of October and will himself return to Scotland, send out two other sons, and next season will remove his entire family to his new home. He came out as a representative man for a considerable number of families, and he has no doubt but that he will bring out with him next summer not less than twenty five or thirty families besides his own.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—Thursday's proceedings, July 21.

Louisa Hermanson vs. Albert Hermanson; decree of divorce.

Rosa Martin vs. John H. Martin; decree of divorce.

First Baptist Church vs. Al. Zeiber, Sheriff; decree of perpetual injunction restraining collection of taxes.

Court adjourned till 9 A. M. Friday.

EXCITEMENT ON THE STREET.—Two or three times last evening the people on the streets were thrown into a state of excitement on account of Shultz. At one time a man was seen to run up First street when several men started in pursuit, calling out "that's him," "there he goes," etc. This turned out a mistake however, and the streets got quiet. At another time a pistol shot was heard up about Yamhill street, and again everybody started up and ran, supposing the expected ball had opened. The alarm proved to have come from the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of a party, and again quiet was restored.

AMUSEMENTS.—Bartholomew's miniature circus performed last night to a fair audience, introducing some very well trained animals and giving several good performances. There will be another performance to-night.

The vocal and instrumental concert at Philharmonic Hall was attended by a full house. There were a number of performances which called out warm applause, and altogether the managers have reason [illegible] up on having succeeded to the entire satisfaction of their audience.

FROM THE FRONT OF THE TRACK.—Says the Bulletin of last evening: Work on the Oregon and California Railroad is being pushed forward in most vigorous manner. The following telegram is self explanatory:

[illegible] July 21st, [illegible]
Special to the [illegible]: The track of the Oregon and California Railroad will be [illegible] the M[illegible] river at 10 A. M. to-day. Work progressing finely.

STEAMER PURCHASE.—The steamer Mary [illegible], which has been of late engaged in the Vancouver line, was yesterday purchased by Mr. Lowman of this city, who will run her on the above route as heretofore. We are informed that it is Mr. Lowman's intention to make several improvements in the boat as regards speed, safety and comfort of passengers.

THE WAR.—Through some mistake it was stated yesterday morning that the ship Ayrshire had received orders to remain at the present in this port on account of the French-Prussian war. The name should have been [illegible].

PERSONAL.—[illegible] T. M. [illegible], late of the Portland Academy, has been elected to the Presidency of the Wallamet University. [illegible] this position [illegible] years back. We are [illegible] whether he will accept.

CITY.

WILSON THE ROBBER

Prisoner waives Examination and is Committed Further Particulars of the Robbery and the Arrest Shultz, his Accomplice

Yesterday morning at 9 o clock the robber Wilson was brought by Sheriff Ellis before Justice S A Moreland upon a warrant charging the prisoner with having committed an assault with a deadly weapon upon John Holton with intent to kill To this charge Wilson pleaded "not guilty" and waived examination and the Justice committed him to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury

At the jail Wilson converses freely with the officers in regard to the robbery his subsequent escape in regard to the chase and the arrest In short he tells everything except the name of his companion He says that his accomplice who is generally believed to be one Shultz was in the thicket with him at the time of the arrest and that when one of the parties who fired pistols in the air cried out "Here he is there he is," etc., while his captors really had him treed up a tree He admits that the object of the firing was to draw the crowd away from his place of concealment and thus give him a chance to escape

He says that at one time while the Sheriff's posse were hunting him in the woods one of the Johnson boys and another passed within three feet of where he and his accomplice lay concealed in a thicket that Shultz (we use the name assuming that Shultz was the accomplice) raised his shot gun and bringing it to an aim toward Johnson as if to shoot that he (Wilson) seized the gun and prevented Shultz from shooting, saying that it would be sure death to both if a gun were fired while the woods were full of men.

In regard to the apparent desperate foolhardiness of coming into town he says that he did not expect to find so many after him He thought he might have to dodge or fight two or three persons but had no idea that he was to be chased "by the whole city" Though he entered a plea of "not guilty" he does not pretend to deny the robbery He says it was the other man who shot Holton He (Wilson) was the man who stopped the party in the buggy with a double barreled shot gun He was in the city the day before the arrest and bought some supplies of powder.

In regard to the arrest and who accomplished it, it seems now well settled that Jo Taylor, the Johnson boys and Billy Marshal were the men who discovered him in the city Wednesday evening and hunted him finally to the capture They saw him enter a house of ill fame on Second street, though at this time they were not altogether positive as to his identity When he came out of the house they followed him through several streets till finally, after visiting the cellar of a house at the corner of First and Morrison At this point they were satisfied he was the man and went for him as heretofore related. Taylor fired five shots and one of the Johnson boys one. Wilson turned, when he fired his pistol, and then as he ran he fired three more over his shoulder. Taylor was the first man to discover him in the shed, calling out to him to surrender Then Wilson fired and almost at the same instant he was surrounded by a dozen or more others who covered him with pistols or shot guns. When he alighted from the shed upon the ground he was seized at the same instant by a dozen men and ironed in a twinkling

Of the movements of Shultz it is reported that he was in the city till near morning and went to Marshal's house and attempted to kill Marshal, in revenge for the part he (Marshal) had taken in the arrest of Wilson

Yesterday, the men who had hunted Wilson went out to the mountains in search of the camp occupied by Wilson and Shultz They found it without difficulty and brought in a coat and a few articles of clothing some ammunition, crackers, etc They found no evidence that Shultz had been there since the day before. It is believed that Shultz is yet in the vicinity.

Another Colony to Oregon —Last Saturday Mr Upton of the firm of Stitzel & Upton, started for the valley accompanied by Mr Wm Chalmers and two other gentlemen who were desirous of seeing the country, having it in view to buy land for future settlement. They went up on the cars as far as Albany, then crossed over to Benton and came down through Polk Yamhill and Washington. Wednesday they went out to see Mr Phillips' farm, a few miles northwest of Portland, and the result of the visit was that Mr Chalmers bought the farm—nearly 1 000 acres—paying for it $14,200 Mr Chalmers was delighted with all the country and upon his return he will be disposed to give of it a favorable account. He will leave his son to take charge of the farm on the 1st of October, and himself return to Scotland, send out two families and next season will remove his entire family to their new home. He came out as a representative man for a considerable number of families, and he has no doubt but that he will bring with him next summer not less than twenty-five or thirty families besides his own

Excitement in the Streets —Two or three times last evening, the people on the streets were thrown into a state of excitement on account of rumors. At one time a man was seen to run up First street, when several men started in pursuit crying out "that's him!" there he goes etc It turned out all a mistake however and the crowd quieted. At another time a pistol shot was heard up about Yamhill street, and again several persons started up and ran, supposing the expected Shultz had been found. This alarm proved to have come from the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of a patrol, and again quiet was restored.

THE POOR HOUSE INVESTIGATION

Charges of Ill-treatment by the Keeper Disproved Complaint Dismissed Irregularities in the Keeper's Accounts to be further Examined

The matter of charges against Mr Hart the keeper of the Multnomah County Poor House has been under investigation during the last two or three weeks It will be remembered that some weeks ago a man name not then given stated to certain parties in the city that he had been grossly ill treated while an inmate of the Poor House and that he did not receive medical attention from Mr Hart The substance of these charges found its way into the papers and created considerable remark The matter became a sort of public scandal and there were numerous suggestions made that an investigation ought to be had On the 6th of July District Attorney A C Gibbs filed in the County Court the following complaint which became the basis of an official inquiry

THE COMPLAINT AGAINST MR HART

To the Honorable County Court of Multnomah County I respectfully represent to your Honorable Body that a complaint has been made to me by one John Kinsela to the effect that the Keeper of the County Poor House has been receiving pay for keeping persons that are not at the Poor House as follows Mr Taylor left four months ago Dan Ellis left last of May Mr Emery never there Mr Williams never there Mr Collins never there James Overton left two months ago and has been at work for John Gentz near town Also that Mr Kinney is well and is now and has been employed by Mr Hart as clerk etc at $ 5 per month I have no personal knowledge on the subject and only give it as I received it that an investigation may be had Should you issue a citation for Mr Kinsela he can be found at Mr Thompson's boarding house or at Dr Brown's office

A C GIBBS District Attorney

July 6th 18 0

AN INVESTIGATION ORDERED

Upon this the county court resolved to institute a thorough investigation of all matters embraced in not only the above paper but the current charges constituting the public scandal Kinsela was cited to appear as complaining witness and Mr Hart was summoned to answer

MR HART'S ANSWER

The answer of Mr Hart to the above written charge was in substance that all his charges for keeping poor house inmates were only the proper and lawful charges that Mr Tyler or Taylor had not been charged for since he left about four months ago Dan Ellis was discharged about May and no charge on his account had been since made Williams and Collins were placed in the poor house by order of the county court and died there and were buried by the keeper Emery came to the house sick and was kept and treated till he was regularly discharged and no charge for him has since been made As to all these answers and denials the defendant appealed for proof to the county records and bills on file. As to Kinsela the defendant alleges that he was kept and charged for only till he was discharged on account of disorderly conduct - getting drunk and leaving the house contrary to the special orders of the keeper and visiting the city Kinsela had all the medicine prescribed by the regular attending physician and had all proper and needful care As to Kinney—since his discharge he had been employed about the house and had been given small sums for his services

THE EXAMINATION

The matter being thus put in issue the court proceeded to summon witnesses to take testimony to visit the poor house to examine the records bills filed, and the accounts of the keeper etc The court took plenty of time to examine into all the facts and to consider them Kinsela in addition to the matter submitted in the above complaint, testified that in his own case he had not been treated medically according to the orders of the physician that he had been badly used and poorly fed and that he was finally turned out of the house in April while sick and unable to take care of himself that he has been ever since and still is sick and without means Mr Hart explained his accounts and introduced evidence to show how the institution had been conducted by him Much of all this testimony was given orally and not reduced to writing and being given at various times we are unable to give it in detail

THE DECISION OF THE COURT

Yesterday afternoon the decision of the court was rendered in regard to that part of the charge relating to the treatment of patients in general and of Kinsela in particular Judge Hamilton for the court, in announcing the decision recounted in substance the occasion and the history of the investigation and the testimony elicited Speaking of the visit of the court to the Poor House he said that they visited the place in the absence of the keeper and without giving him any notice that they were favorably impressed with what they saw, and that in regard to the general management of the place the evidence given in the court, had confirmed that favorable impression After patient inquiry the court had come to the conclusion that the charge in relation to ill treatment bad food neglect etc originated from a bad spirit in the complainant possibly infused and cultivated by bad advisers The Poor House seemed to be as well kept as could be expected under the system heretofore adopted and there was no reliable evidence that Mr Hart had not treated the inmates properly The decision of the court, therefore is that the complaint as regards treatment of the patients and general management of the place is dismissed

AS TO THE KEEPER'S ACCOUNTS

The court finds in regard to that part of the complaint which charges the rendering of improper accounts that there are items which look as though they were incorrect or at least as though they should not have been charged to the county Such charges may have been made by mistake as to the rights of the keeper and liability of the county The manner of keeping accounts is a loose one, and the business is conducted on a general system which needs revision and correction The charge as to false accounts is continued for further examination till the next term of the court

MATTERS INCIDENTAL DECIDED

The complainant is unable to pay costs and as the respondent has been exonerated so far as the investigation has been concluded and as the investigation was ordered by the court partly for its own satisfaction and to settle the public scandal the costs accrued will be taxed to the county

The Court finds that the poor house is altogether unsuitable for winter use it will be necessary to order some repairs and additions

As to the matter of the application of Kinsela for an allowance without sending him back to the poor house, the Court is compelled under the rule heretofore adhered to to deny the application The Court will not undertake to support any pauper outside of the poor house

The Proposed Clackamas Water Power The Bulletin of yesterday which doubtless speaks by authority says The corps of engineers Messrs Ward West and Sheets—who have been engaged in the preliminary surveys for the Portland and East Portland Gas and Water Power Manufacturing Company have located a point on the Clackamas river at which to construct their water reservoir at an elevation which will enable them to lead a head of water that will throw a stream two hundred feet above the base line of the Portland grades—or about fifty feet higher than the private residence of Mr Wm S Ladd As soon as this corps of engineers complete their preliminary surveys Mr Von Schmidt the now famous engineer who successfully blew up Blossom Rock in San Francisco harbor will come to permanently locate the line of the aqueduct the reservoirs etc The company also expect the arrival here of Mr Lewis an accomplished Superintendent of Gas Works (brother of Mr C H Lewis of Allen & Lewis chief merchants of Portland) who has accepted an engagement in the service of the company to take charge of the Gas Works they purpose to erect in East Portland These and other enterprises of importance are to be pushed onward with vigor in this city and in East Portland during this year

Johnny Holton —The wound received by Johnny Holton at the time of the late robbery has been very painful but is now doing quite well and the prospects for his recovery are flattering

Admiral John A Dahlgren whose death the telegraph recently announced is best known to the American public in connection with the formidable artillery that bears his name He was a native of Pennsylvania and entered the United States Navy as a Midshipman in 1826 He was made Lieutenant in 18 and a Commander in 18 Shortly after this he was employed on ordnance duty and during the course of experiments at the navy yard in Washington he invented the gun which has since made his name famous throughout the world Perhaps no modern invention has done more to increase the efficiency of our navy than the introduction of the Dahlgren ordnance and during the war their power and range were tested in innumerable instances These guns carry shell and the range and calibre of the weapon is modified to suit all arms of the service, from heavy siege trains down to light field batteries

There is some talk of war between Peru and Bolivia, some persons believing the danger to be imminent.

MEXICO AND SOUTH AMERICA

The telegraph line between Acapulco and the City of Mexico is nearly finished and the wagon road between the same points is progressing rapidly

The coal from the mines near the Straits of Magellan is getting more and more in demand Its quality has been attested and certified by the Peruvian squadron and the Peruvian navy of war

The rich mines of silver discovered five leagues from the town of Caluma Peru has drawn great crowds of people there The silver ores of Atacama have yielded sent first superior ores The argentiferous strata give 6 to 000 marcos to the ton

The Mercurio says that in consequence of the unseasonable winter small pox is spreading in Valparaiso to an extent little short of alarming There are upwards of one hundred patients in the Lazaretto and in addition to this there is scarcely a street in the city in which there is not to be found many cases

Clarke & Co representatives of the Transandine Telegraph Company have presented a new petition to Congress asking for an exclusive privilege of ten years and an annual subsidy of $15 000 to take effect from the date when telegraphic communication shall be established between the cities of Valparaiso and Buenos Ayres

Mr Ken says the expenditures of the Mexican Government for the next year will require the sum of $1 00 000 while the income will be but $11 000 000 The entries at the Custom House are less than formerly and internal taxation being very heavy is set down as one of the principal causes The financial prospect is not considered very flattering

In Peru companies are being formed throughout the republic for establishing banking institutions irrigation the further development of the saltpeter district of Tarapaca railway enterprise and other projects tending to general and practical utility For the first time in quite a number of years the Prefects of the different provinces report that perfect peace reigns in all the departments

FOREIGN NOTES

At the instance of Gov Curtin U S Minister at St Petersburg the Russian Government has stationed Russian officers who speak the English language at the frontier custom houses This will be of great service to Americans and English travelers who cannot speak the language

A correspondent of the New York Times writing from Ottawa gives the secret history of the British American Confederation scheme He says that the people are really opposed to Confederation but that the scheme has been carried by adroit politicians who have combined with the Grand Trunk Railway and the clergy It is represented that there is much discontent about the matter

It is now stated that the long lost Second Decade of Titus Levius has been found and in a perfect condition The librarian of the old Monastery of Liegnitz Saxony writes that he had long suspected its existence from the fact of having found it marked on an old catalogue of the library All the savans of Germany are in a state of excitement over this discovery Investigations thus far are said to have proved its authenticity

The first Napoleon would not recognize the wife of Jerome Madame Patterson of Baltimore But Napoleon the Third wears the mourning eight days for her and her son Jerome Patterson Bonaparte Very respectful Not unlike and not unworthy of Napoleon the Third's wisdom and common sense But it does not justify the past nor is it unfair to say that if the United States had not become a great nation the compliment might never have been paid

The only authorized text book of history in use in the highest military colleges of Russia is full of the most glaring partisan errors According to Russian historians Austerlitz was won solely through the efforts of Russian soldiers, before a junction was formed with the Austrian troops And at the Peace of Presburg it was owing solely to the mediation of the Czar that the Emperor Francis was not compelled to abdicate The battle of Leipsic is declared to have been won by the Russians alone and the Prussians and Austrians were only troublesome and superfluous allies The Germans declare that the whole book reads to them as if it were the work of the same hand that manufactures such wonderful telegraphic dispatches and such astute political satires for the renowned Kladderadatsch

Our Citizens certainly deserve credit for the energy they display to make the Oregon Immigration and Labor Exchange a success and benefit to the State as well as the immigrant coming to our State Every citizen should give all the aid in their power to help the large number of strangers coming to our State, and not forget to inform them that Fuller & Fisher No 91 Front street have the largest stock of clothing in Oregon their goods are of superior quality and sold at extremely low prices

The Great Work

From the N Y Tribune

[illegible] the National Debt [illegible] will to-day be celebrated [illegible] rising reduction [illegible] of the National Debt. This is the largest that has taken place in any [illegible] month [illegible] nearly six millions more than the great [illegible] of the preceding month of May [illegible] of the [illegible] of President Grant's Administration [illegible] $1,[illegible]. There [illegible] in the Treasury besides the certificates [illegible] gold [illegible] coin balance [illegible] 100,000, a considerable proportion of which will be paid out during the current month for the half yearly interest on the Five-Twenty bonds. While undergoing this [illegible] the coin surplus will at the same time be replenished by the receipts of gold customs within the month, and the Secretary will be abundantly able to make such sales of the coin as he may deem desirable.

The reduction of the debt during the month will seem quite surprising to those who have seen the numerous statements recently published for the purpose of aiding political interests to the effect that there would be but little if any reduction in June on account of the heavy disbursements the Government had to make for the Army and Navy and several civil departments of the Administration. We hope that these financial prophets whose skies are always filled with black clouds and whose spirits are always depressed will be consoled by seeing the facts of the case as presented in simple and compact form by Secretary Boutwell.

This country can never pay off the War Debt — we were told by the Democrats every day from the close of the war till the election of Gen Grant. Even we, who took an [illegible] of opposite view and urged it on grounds of principle and interest, can hardly say we ever believed that the country would pay off the debt at the rate it has been paid off during the last sixteen months. We are rejoiced to say that our great expectations have been surpassed by greater realizations.

The result before us has been accomplished in a very simple way,—not by any fearful and wonderful displays of financial gymnastics, but merely by carrying out measures of retrenchment and economy, faithfully collecting the revenues and honorably maintaining the credit of the Government. It is only by persevering in the enforcement of the same measures and principles that we shall in due time accomplish the remaining part of the great work.

The Chinese Puzzle

SOME POINTS IN THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION THAT POLITICIANS MAY PROFITABLY STUDY

[From the S F Bulletin]

It is on the whole, amusing to watch the varied comment which John Chinaman excites in the East, as he becomes there a visible entity instead of an intangible creation of the fancy. Following in the wake of the Chinese Embassy, he seems to have reached, at last the shores of the Atlantic and of the Gulf and to have offered samples of his race and of his handiwork for the inspection of North and South. If he does not cross the Atlantic and invade Europe, it will be because the way thither has always been open to him and he has found no sufficient inducement. And herein we discover a full contradiction of the exaggerated fears which some entertain or at least express, regarding Chinese immigration. The fact is, they are not an emigrating people. The three great rivers of their country flow clear athwart its area to the Pacific and yet they are not a commercial people and have not even overrun the adjacent islands. This is not because they lack enterprise or energy, or inquisitiveness, or acquisitiveness. All these promoters of commerce are largely developed in their economy. But their political and social and religious system is wholly centripetal in its principles and tendencies. This is well understood here, though not in the East and South. When, however, it comes to be found that these peripatetic Celestials insist upon a guarantee of having their bones sent back to their native land, our Eastern brethren will "savee" the generic character of Chinese civilization and will understand why it never has been, and never can be, invasive like that of the Goths, or even emigrative to any great extent numerically, and not even permanently so in the case of individuals. The Chinaman does not intend nor desire to leave the land of his fathers, not to break the family ties which to him are a religion.

Hence there is no more danger of America being flooded with the Chinese than of England being overrun with Hindoos or France with Arabs, much less. It may have been the peculiarities of race, and the habits of climate which alone have served to keep other Asiatics at home, but in the case of the Chinese there is a restricting power over and above and far greater than these. When our Eastern and Southern countrymen have learned these facts as well as we, they may perhaps have less hope as well as less fear regarding the Chinaman and his mission in America. It will be found that his mission consists in coming when he is called and going when he is no longer wanted.

Agricultural Illustration of the Coolie Question.

[From the New York Tribune]

North Adams shoe-manufacturers find parallels in Long Island growers of garden truck. There are Long Island laborers who insist as well as Massachusetts Crispins on committing a sort of hari-kari and indulging in a dog-in-the-manger policy. The parallels for the Chinese coolies are found in Irishmen freshly landed at Castle Garden. The Brooklyn Eagle, which is a good authority with the party that has it in contemplation to elevate the Chinese question into a political principle, and embody it in a party platform, explains the trouble on this new found battle field of American labor after the following brief and direct fashion:

"While hundreds of laboring men crowd the corridors of the City Hall and tell the Mayor that unless he withdraws his objection to the issue of further Park bonds they will be thrown out of employment and reduced to destitution for want of the $1 75 per day which the Park Commissioners pay for ten hours work, the Long Island papers are bemoaning the inability of the farmers to hire farm hands for $3 a day. Farmers, in this county and in the adjoining county often have to go to Castle Garden and pick up raw green hands just landed from the emigrant ship, and even with this personal search and effort cannot get all the farm help they need."

There is something more of this sort, and an explanation of the source of the trouble is attempted, but a few sentences which The Eagle extracts from one of the complaining papers furnish a solution more concise and just as clear. It also suggests a remedy not unlike that which the Massachusetts manufacturers are attempting in self defense, and which the Crispins are quite naturally condemning. "These fellows," says The Long Islander, meaning the men who won't work for $3 a day:

"Have lain on their oars all the spring, with the expectation of making all up at the eleventh hour. There is a [illegible] among these and the other laboring men of the vicinity that [illegible] the lack of [illegible] among our farmers. They make no discrimination between the skilled man and the unskilled, a young boy who has never put a cradle into grain demands just as much as the steady [illegible] who can cradle his three or four acres per day. To counteract this unwise, unjust, ruinous state of affairs, our farmers must unite, a permanent weekly organization should be formed [illegible] only to discuss this labor question but many other topics of vital interest to our prosperity."

The principle involved is precisely the same in the case of the Chinese and the Irish, the Crispins and the Brooklyn laborers, and it is a simple commercial question of supply and demand. It will be wise in Long Island laborers to look at it as such and not leave the farmers to seek cheap labor at Castle Garden or perhaps Hong Kong.

Laurence Sterne, who never aspired to the reputation of a special morality, once wrote "I should never drink. I cannot afford it. It costs me three days—the first in sinning, the second in sobering and the third in repenting."

The following extract from the [illegible] is rather funny: "It is one of the most amusing sights in the world to see a young man in experimentally attempting to grin. [illegible] particularly amuses the head of one of our short-haired young men. NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as [illegible] [illegible] Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, &c. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering under a horrible existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and languid faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible and destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice is generally an [illegible] indulgence practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to such patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use. For Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trade. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters or [illegible]. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 257.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 959 ON THE LETTER.
